Dear Sherry,

On behalf of Child and Family Services and the Concord and Manchester Regional Boards of Directors, I would like to thank you for sponsoring our 21st year of "Concerts for the Cause".

As you may know this is our premier fundraising event. This is one of the biggest ways that we as a community can give hope and help to struggling children and families. Your contribution today of media sponsorship will allow many to have a brighter tomorrow. We truly appreciate your generosity in making such an extraordinary difference. With your help, we were able to raise over $92,000 in Concord and $61,000 in Manchester.

Please keep this letter as well as the value of your donated gift and/or service for your tax records. Remember, your contribution is tax deductible less the value of the tickets you received for the event. Ticket value was $42.50 each in Concord and $36.00 each in Manchester. Child and Family Services is an independent, non-profit 501 c (3) charitable organization (Tax ID # 02-0222164).

Thanks again for your support.

Sincerely,

Mike Ostrowski

Dear Sherry:

On behalf of the Boys & Girls Club of Manchester, I would like to extend our sincere appreciation to WMUR-TV for your support of the 2006 Boys & Girls Clubs Day for Kids as a Media Sponsor.

We are currently evaluating and capturing the tremendously exciting results from our annual celebration. As you'll recall, the primary objective this year was to generate awareness of BGC Day for Kids in our community, celebrate the Boys & Girls Club of Manchester's 100th anniversary and, most importantly, provide an opportunity for children and families to spend some quality time together in a fun, interactive environment. I'm proud to report that our BGC Day for Kids was a wonderful success, in large part due to support from our local partners, such as WMUR-TV.

More than 3,000 visitors spent part of their day with us learning about the programs and services provided by local non-profit organizations and family-friendly businesses. It was rewarding to see the smiles on the faces of the children in attendance enjoying a day created just for them.

I know the public service announcements provided by WMUR-TV to promote the event led to its great success and we are so very appreciative!

I will contact you in the months ahead to discuss ways that WMUR-TV can continue its involvement with the Boys & Girls Club of Manchester and BGC Day for Kids – which is scheduled for Saturday, September 15, 2007. Again, thank you for helping the kids and adults of Manchester share moments, create memories, and make a kid's day!

Sincerely,

Tracey Adams

On Tuesday June 5, 2007, your station demonstrated what broadcasting should be all about. You gave uninterrupted coverage of some very serious thunderstorms, and possible tornados. You did this without commercial breaks, meaning it cost WMUR something to provide this coverage. Josh Judd did an excellent job of letting us know that it could be a serious situation, without resorting to causing panic. I have to tell you, I'm impressed!

To Heather Hamel, Chris and the entire WMUR News Team-
Until yesterday there was not much hope we were taking our trip to Aruba-
I want to thank you for airing my story. Also thanks to the man I spoke to in the news room yesterday morning.
So often the news is depressing and at times I would imagine difficult to report.
But more often I believe you all are serving your community by reporting, educating and making your viewers aware.
My story, I hope, will truly help others never have to face the worries I did.
You are all are part of our families and homes. The power of the media is a wonderful thing!
I will keep you posted on my trip and promise to send you a postcard.
Thanks Again

Just a note to commend you on yesterday's excellent coverage of the services for Cpl. Bruce McKay. I watched the entire program and was moved to tears.

The anchors and reporters were all extremely respectful and understated on this somber and sad occasion. Also, unlike many 'network' broadcasts I've seen, you did not intrude on the familys' privacy or displays of grief. We can - and should - only imagine the pain they feel at such a senseless loss of their loved one, an outstanding public service professional for our state.

Thank you for your kind comments.
The officers dressed in red were actually with the New Hampshire Fish & Game Department.
Their dress uniforms for times like this are red. (and I know that they sometimes do get confused with the Canadian officers)

I don't believe that I saw any Canadian Mounties in attendance.

Thanks for writing.

I wanted to thank WMUR and Heather Hamel for their efforts to recognize NH's heroes as they return home from the war. On Saturday, Heather interviewed my nephew Andrew Crowell and my sister Linda. Neither of them normally would be comfortable in front of a camera but Heather's personality and skill as an interviewer made them so comfortable they didn't even think about being nervous. I watched in awe as they both looked like seasoned TV pros. My whole family talked about what a nice person Heather was.

Thank you very much to WMUR for your commitment to honor returning heroes. Thank you Heather for your ability to make everyone feel so comfortable. And lastly, I believe it was Kevin Flynn who was responsible for letting the crew know about Andrews arrival.

Thank you for honoring 2 of my heroes, my nephew Andrew and my sister Linda.

Dear Jeff,

On behalf of the Board of Directors and staff of The Children's Museum, I deeply appreciate receiving the 2007 Champion in Action award for youth programming. This award is truly an honor for The Children's Museum, and will be an important springboard for providing the museum with volunteer, financial and public relations support.

The timing of the 2007 Champions in Action award will be most beneficial to the museum's expansion and relocation plans. The award will enable the museum to market its growing educational and outreach resources and services to an even broader audience throughout the state, and continue its growth in all areas of programming. The WMUR media coverage and public relations support will help market The Children's Museum's position as a major resource for education both now and in its new venue, and help to build relationships throughout the state.

Funding in the amount of $25,000 will provide additional outreach resources to low-income families through the Reach All Initiative, and help grow all of the museum's programs—school, after-school, workshops and educational exhibits. Volunteer support will provide important staffing for all areas of museum operations, and help increase museum services to teachers and families throughout the state.

The 2007 Champions in Action award is truly a gift to the museum and the families we serve. We are grateful for Citizens Bank and WMUR's commitment to the museum's mission to provide learning opportunities for all children throughout the state. It is only through the generosity and vision of individuals and businesses like Citizens Bank and WMUR that The Children's Museum is able to impact the lives of over 90,000 families each year.

Dear Jeff:

On behalf of all of us associated with the New Hampshire Political Library, please accept our heartfelt thank you to WMUR-TV for your production of the Political Library overview and the video biographies of Gary Hart and Patrick Buchanan for our Primary Awards Dinner. We are extremely lucky to have you as a partner and supporter and value the many generous resources from which the Political Library benefits, including your time, expertise, and continued collaboration.

Not only do we appreciate these three productions and the promotional PSAs, valued at nearly $12,000, but you and your staff all went above and beyond the call of duty with the extensive historical material and the first-rate writing that animated each piece.

Patrick Buchanan and Gary Hart were not quite sure what to expect going into the evening. They left New Hampshire feeling well taken care of, respected, and even a bit teary-eyed at the memories. Your productions had a great deal to do with this and we thank you for supporting our efforts in recognizing them. Thanks to the Chronicle production, a great many more people will know what the Political Library is all about.

In the months ahead leading up to the 2008 New Hampshire presidential primary, we appreciate and look forward to continuing a rewarding and enjoyable partnership with you and your staff at WMUR-TV.

Your piece on "Heroes" was wonderful. I especially enjoyed how the hero stories were woven throughout and each touched on families or children.

Please know how much it meant to the Foundation to be a part of such an uplifting and touching story. I appreciated the way you framed our segment and allowed Julie to share her hero, Morgan, with your viewers. The story was done with compassion and sensitivity.

Julie received a lovely note from Morgan's Mom thanking her for celebrating such special moment of Morgan's life.

Dear Jeff,

Recently, Tiffany Eddy visited the Boys & Girls Club of Manchester to learn about our programs and services and to hear what our kids had to say about the Club. The result of her visit aired on NH Chronicle on March 8, 2007.

Several weeks prior to Tiffany's visit, I met with a very nice elderly lady named Tina Theodosopoulos, who was considering a gift to support our work. She toured our Union Street Clubhouse and asked many questions about our members and how we helped them develop. We met during school hours, so Tina did not have the opportunity to see the Club in action.

The week following Tina's visit, NH Chronicle aired Tiffany's piece about the Boys & Girls Club. Not long after, I received a call from Tina. She wanted to return for a visit and discuss her donation. Tina had watched NH Chronicle and was touched by the conversations Tiffany had with our kids. She was also moved to see how much the kids enjoyed the Club. She said, "Tiffany really connected with the kids. I could easily see how important the Boys & Girls Club was to them."

Tina concluded our conversation by saying "I was so glad I saw the program because it helped me make the right decision." Tina made a $100,000 gift to the Boys & Girls Club that morning, which will ultimately affect the lives of thousands of children in the years to come.

The generations of children that we have been entrusted with will soon determine the course of our society. Tiffany provided Tina the opportunity to clearly see why the Boys & Girls Club is so important to children today and to those yet to come. We are extremely grateful to WMUR-TV and to Tiffany Eddy for the compassion and care she shared with us.

Best regards,

RE: Hampton Beach Fire Broadcast

February 19, 2007

Attention Newsroom,

I want to express to you today my sincere thanks for your interest and coverage of the most recent tragic event that happened at Hampton Beach New Hampshire. Jean Mackin along with others in your crew stayed there to cover the news in such extreme weather conditions and it is appreciated. You further interviewed my father an elderly disabled senior whom returned to his home one day after the fire, through the extreme efforts of local utility companies and neighbors and family helping out, both him and my mother are safe and warm in their home. Family members not able to go to the area at the time were worried and relieved to see him safe and well.

A valentine miracle I call it, that they were lucky enough to have such a fine group of firefighters helping them out and even pushing their car out of the snow through the smoke into safety. They being the survivors of this horrible fire that destroyed most of the area I grew up in as a child. It's horrifying to think now of how close it came to taking their lives as well as there property.

Keep up the great work!

Sincerely,

Sandra Plamondon

Hi Jeff-

Thank you so much for the exceptional coverage we got around our campaign celebration and our car give-away. I received many calls and emails from our supporters and board. We are working hard to be exciting and news worthy and I am glad WMUR TV saw that in our work last year.

Currently we are building our community campaign team for the 2007 effort. We did a great job last year and now we need to think up some more exciting things for 2007. Pamela Diamantis our 2007 campaign chair asked me to reach out to you to see if you had any interest in participating on our campaign cabinet this year? This will be an exciting year and we have some great local leaders already assembled on the team.

I can present you with some more details if you are interested. WMURTV did such a great job on your campaign this year and we would love to have you at the table as an example to others.
